

Walter Alcorn, Chairman, Hunter Mill District, former Planning Commissioner, Consumer Electronics Association

Walter Alcorn was appointed to the Park Authority Board in July, 2015 by Fairfax County Board of Supervisors Chair Sharon Bulova. His term will expire on December 31, 2017. Alcorn is a Reston resident who served on the Fairfax County Planning Commission from 1997 to 2012. He served as vice-chair from 2007 to 2013 and also chaired several Planning Commission committees over the years including Environment, Infill, Residential Development Criteria and Tysons. On the Park Board, Alcorn serves as vice chair of the Strategic Planning and Initiatives Committee and a member of the Budget Committee, Funding Policy and Bond Committee, Park Services and Golf Committee, and Planning and Development Committee. He is currently president of the Herndon High School PTSA and is on the board of directors of AHOME. Alcorn received his B.A. from the University of Virginia in 1988. He is currently employed as Vice President for Environmental Affairs and Industry Sustainability at the Consumer Electronics Association. Previously he worked at Alcorn Consulting and at SAIC from 1992 to 2003. Prior to his private sector employment Alcorn was a policy aide in the Providence District supervisor's office.

Scott Adams, McGuireWoods (Land Use Attorney)

Scott focuses his practice on land use and development issues in Northern Virginia and Maryland. He primarily assists developers and landowners in navigating the land use entitlement process, including obtaining rezonings, special exceptions, special permits, variances, and comprehensive plan amendments. He also assists clients in amending existing development approvals to more closely align with changing market conditions. Throughout the land use entitlement process, Scott works to maximize development potential for his clients in a cost-effective manner. He has also been actively involved in the re-planning of Tysons Corner into a transit-oriented community. Prior to joining McGuireWoods LLP, he was an urban planner assisting developers and advising local governments on a wide range of land use and development issues. Scott also volunteers for a variety of community organizations, including the Community Appearance Alliance of Northern Virginia, Habitat for Humanity of Northern Virginia and the AOL/McGuireWoods LLP free legal clinic.

Robert Cain, Braddock District

Robert Cain is a resident from the Braddock District. Robert is currently the Senior Program Analyst for the Office of Comptroller of the Currency under the Department of Treasury, where he serves as the lead business transformation strategist for the Chief Counsel's Office. Other of Robert's previous experiences include being the Senior Business Process Consultant for Society of Research Administrators International, which is a research management society providing education, professional development and comprehensive information about research management, as well as being an Environmental Scientist for Engineering Science, Inc, where he was the lead scientist for land use planning and development associated with endangered wildlife and wetlands. Robert has three certifications as a Business Architecture Institute Processional (BAIP), SCRUM Master and in Environmental Management.

Karen Campblin, Sully District

Karen Campblin is a resident from the Sully District for over three years and is active in various community and professional organizations, including serving as Vice-Chair of the Transportation Committee for the Fairfax County Federation of Citizens Associations. Karen is the founder and the current Manager of ktcPLAN, LLC which is a small planning firm, in addition she is a Community Development Planner, certified by the American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP), specializing in transportation and community revitalization. She has managed various community involvement and community coordination projects, in addition has an in-depth knowledge and experience in planning techniques and regulatory requirements. Karen holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a Masters of Public Administration.

Bill Canis, Dranesville District,

Bill Canis, his wife Susan, and their three school-age children moved to Great Falls in 1999 from New Jersey. His wife is a realtor with Long and Foster. Bill is a congressional analyst for the motor vehicle and commercial space industries with the Congressional Research Service, part of the Library of Congress. Earlier he worked at American Express in New York, at Caterpillar and as a legislative assistant on Capitol Hill. Bill has been on the Great Falls Citizens Association (GFCA) board since 2010 and was elected by GFCA members as president in June 2016. GFCA seeks to maintain the semi-rural character of Great Falls and represents our community with local, state and federal officials. Before serving on the GFCA board, he was an adult advisor to Boy Scout Venturing Crew 364, an assistant scoutmaster with Boy Scout Troop 55, and a den leader with Cub Scout Pack 55.

Michael Carlin, Springfield District

Michael Carlin is a resident of Fairfax County has experience, relationships in, and knowledge of government, business and community environments. Michael co-found Access Point Public Affairs, LLC in 2003 which provides specialized strategic services that help businesses and organizations maximize opportunities and minimize challenges to directly support their goals. Other experiences Michael has are Director of Public Affairs for Washington Gas, a public utility and energy service retailer, Director of Legislative Affairs for Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce and staff aide to members of both houses of Congress. Michael has also participated in several business and community organizations in Northern Virginia. In his 25 years of experience in government, business and community affairs, Michael has led numerous advocacy efforts and developed strong relationships with key officials.

Michael DeLoose, Springfield District

Mike is a resident of Springfield District. He is currently President of the West Springfield Civic Association and Vice Chairman of the Springfield District Land Use Committee. He is immediate past-president of the Springfield District Council of Civic Associations. He was a

Springfield District Representative to the Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) Area Plans Review which made recommendations on nominated plan changes in Lee, Springfield and Mt. Vernon Districts. He was a member of the Community Revitalization and Reinvestment Advisory Group, created by the Board of Supervisors to advise the county on commercial revitalization issues. Prior to his retirement last year, he was employed in legislative/policy positions at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Resolution Trust Corporation and the U.S. General Services Administration. Previous to his federal employment, he developed, tested and implemented a nationally-recognized accreditation program for state financial regulatory agencies that evaluates an agency's organizational capabilities and performance and worked on modernization of the regulatory system for financial institutions as a lobbyist for a banking trade association

Sherry Fisher, Braddock District

Sherry Fisher is a resident from the Braddock District who has lived in Fairfax County for almost 30 years. Since 1998, Sherry has served on a number of land use committees in the Sully, Springfield and Braddock Districts. Currently, Sherry is the Secretary of the Braddock District Land Use and Environment (BLUE) Committee, where she makes recommendations to the Braddock District Planning Commissioner and district Supervisor, also the Braddock District representative on the Fairfax County Chesapeake Bay Expectation Review Committee, and an Environmental Policy Advisor at a law firm. Some of Sherry's other experiences include serving as Vice-Chair and Chairman of the BLUE Committee from 2012 to 2013 and being a Braddock District representative for the Fairfax Center Area Study Phase II Work Group. Sherry also holds two Masters in Urban and Environmental Planning and Environmental Science.

Al Francese, Sully District

Al is a 30-year resident of Little Rocky Run in Clifton and former HOA trustee. He has followed land use issues that impact the community, its transportation access, and proximity to schools and has participated in Annual Plan Review (APR) task forces established by the Board of Supervisors. As a member of the joint Sully District- Western Fairfax Land Use Committee, Al participates in committee meetings that review and make recommendations to the Planning Commission on rezoning and special exception applications and on proposed revisions to the comprehensive plan language on a variety of land uses and changes in use. Al was a community appointee to the School Board's Task Force to Study the Future of Clifton Elementary School. Professionally, Al has been a federal energy projects/land use attorney with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission reviewing applications of interstate pipelines to construct facilities and import/export natural gas. Before that, Al was Legislative Counsel for the U.S. Railway Association, an agency charged with restructuring rail service in the Northeast. Al is a member of the Energy Bar Association, Transportation Alliance, Dulles Area Transportation Association, and the Committee for Dulles and is an avid Hoya.

Deborah Fraser, Mason District

Deborah Fraser is a resident from the Mason District who has a willingness to get hands-on experience with the complexities of land use, comprehensive plans and communication with concerned residents. Deborah currently services the Chairman of the Committee Members for the Lincolnia United Methodist Church where she has overseen several repairs to the church by creating revenue streams to support the repairs. Other experiences Deborah has had are Stonegate at Landmark-Association President, where she was responsible to manage the property of 45 homes, serving as Civilian Director and Board Member of the Nashua Police Athletic Leagues, which encouraged positive relationships between the youth and police in Nashua, NH and also Founder and Director of Fundraising for Nashua Neighbors Charity, which supported the greater Nashua community by supporting individuals and organizations in need.

Lori Greenlief, Hunter Mill, McGuireWoods (Land Use Planner)

Lori has over 25 years of both public- and private- sector experience in the land use process in Northern Virginia and has lived in Fairfax County for 55 years. Her employment as a planner for 11 years with the Department of Planning and Zoning in Fairfax County, in addition to her experience managing a land use consulting firm for 6 years, combine to give her a unique and valuable perspective that serves our McGuireWoods clients well. As a planner with the County, she analyzed zoning applications and prepared and presented reports before the Board of Zoning Appeals, Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors. As a private land use consultant, she represented clients in all stages of the development process. Her extended years of experience in the Northern Virginia market have resulted in a deep understanding of the legislative process, as well as productive relationships with County staff and local political leaders. Her services include assisting clients at all stages and with all aspects of the land planning and development process from due diligence for site selection through obtaining rezoning, special exceptions and Comprehensive Plan amendment approvals.

Elizabeth John, Dranesville District

Elizabeth John is a resident from the Dranesville District who currently the Global Head of Operations and OrgLab Product Line for McKinsey & Company, where she leads a global team of over 50 consultants from 6 countries, delivering $25 million in revenues across the Solution's entire portfolio of products. Several of Elizabeth's other experiences include Management Consultant for McKinsey & Company, where she advised leaders across a variety of industries which include, Infrastructure, Retail, and Aerospace & Defense, as well as being the Senior Purchases Manager, NA Fiber Technology Leader and Raw Material Site Manager/Stock Prep Process Engineer for The Procter and Gamble Company, a multinational consumer goods company. Elizabeth also has a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering and a Master of Business Administration.

Barbara Lippa, Sully District

Barbara Lippa is a resident from Centerville who has dedicated 35 years to the Fairfax County Planning Commission. Barbara worked her way up the ranks from Planning Aide, where she researched reports and prepared correspondence on land use actions, to the Executive Director, where she advised the Planning Commission on land use policy, oversaw the budget and scheduled the Commission agenda items. Other experiences Barbara has had are working for both National Advisory Council on the Education of Disadvantaged Children and Indian Children along with taking several leadership roles in numerous organizations such as the Fairfax County Commission for Women, the National Association of Commissions for Women, and Zonta International. Barbara also holds two Bachelor of Science in History and Political Science and two Master of Arts and Sciences in Special Studies and Administration.

Jeffrey Longo, Mason District, Sleepy Hollow Manor Citizens Association

Jeffrey Longo is a resident from the Mason District who currently serving as the President of the Sleepy Hollow Manor Citizens Association, which he and other from the association have been heavily involved in the work on the seven corners comprehensive plan, as well as other land use items that directly impact the Mason district. Jeffrey has also been an active participant in the land use process regarding the zoning ordinance amendment of last year as well as the adoption of changes to the comprehensive plan for the public schools. Since Jeffrey has become more involved he has seen the community frustration with the existing process regarding to land use as well as how much pressure is on the process from active community engagement and ready to provide his constructive input into the conversation.

Sandra Lukic-Dapoigny, Braddock District

Sandra Lukic-Dapoigny is a resident from the Braddock District who has lived in Fairfax County for the last eight years. Sandra is currently a Business Program Manager for Anthem, Inc, the country's largest a health insurance company, and she manages numerous projects from planning through execution and closing, regularly brief and giving presentations to Senior Leadership and the Vice Presidents. Sandra also is member of the Parent Teacher Association of Wakefield Forrest Elementary where she has been involved in several annual fundraisers and introduced the Code.org initiatives to students. Sandra holds a Bachelor's degree in Computer Engineering, a Masters of Business Administration and is certified as a Project Management Professional by the Project Management Institute.

Brad McKinney, Mason District

Brad and his wife, Kristie, have been residents of the Westlawn neighborhood in Mason District since 2013. Brad is Director of Government Affairs for Michael Torrey Associates, LLC, a food and agriculture consulting firm in Washington, D.C. Prior to that, Brad was a Public Policy Advisor for the food and agriculture practice at FaegreBD Consulting; a Legislative and Regulatory Affairs Specialist for the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture (NASDA); and Scheduler to U.S. Senator Richard Lugar of Indiana. Brad graduated with a B.S. from Purdue University, and later an M.S. in Agricultural Economics from Purdue and an M.B.A. from the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University. Brad and Kristie have a son, Fisher, who is one year old.

Carrie Nixon, Providence District

Carrie Nixon is Co-Founder and CEO of Healthcare Solutions Connection and Managing Member of Nixon Law Group. She is an expert in healthcare law and policy issues relating to the Affordable Care Act reforms, representing hospitals and health systems, health plans, individual physicians and physician groups, labs, pharmacies, post-acute care providers, tele-health companies and startups in the healthcare space. After receiving her JD from the University of Virginia School of Law, Carrie began her legal career as an attorney at Mintz Levin, later joining the DC office of Reed Smith before starting her own law firm. Carrie has lived in Vienna with her husband and daughter since 2006, and became active in local politics in 2008. She has served as the Providence District representative to the Fairfax Transportation Commission.

Kevin O'Neill, Braddock District

Kevin O'Neill is a resident from the Braddock District who has 15 years of hands-on experience leading teams and executing marketing strategies for technology companies, governments, politics and public affairs, nonprofits, and brands. Kevin currently is the Senior Director of WSB - The Washington Speakers Bureau, where he leads a team in the execution of effective digital campaigns to promote product launches, content, and events. Some of Kevin's other experiences are serving as Director of Marketing Operations for Clarabridge, Senior Vice President for Edelman, a global marketing communications and PR firm, also Managing Director, Director of Online Campaigns and Senior Client Manager for Grassroots Enterprise, an advocacy software startup, plus Executive Director and Membership Director for American Association of Political Consultants. Kevin as well holds a Bachelors of Science in Business Administration.

Vincent Picciano, Braddock District

Vincent Picciano is a resident who has lived in Fairfax County for 57 years and has an interest in urban development and land use issued. Vincent currently serves on the Board of Directors of his Home Owners Association and has been on the board for the past eight years. Before retiring from Fairfax County, Vincent was the Director of Juvenile Court Services for the County for over 35 years and while in the position oversaw the planning and constructing of three juvenile facilities along with the renovation of the Old County Courthouse. Other experience Vincent has are working as a juvenile justice consultant, member of and afterwards President of the Board for Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Fairfax, and Chairman of Fairfax Forward's Phase I and II initiative for the County central area around the Government Center.

Chris Soule, Lee District

Chris Soule is a resident from the Lee District who was appointed by Taylor Holland, the Chief of Staff of Lee District. Chris is currently a board member of the Southeast Fairfax Development Corporation (SFDC), which is an economic development organization dedicated to promoting the redevelopment and revitalization of the Richmond Highway corridor from the beltway to Fort Belvoir, plus a member of the Embark Richmond Highway Advisory Group and Outreach Subcommittee. Additional experience Chris has had was being the former Jefferson Manor Civic Association President, where he oversaw the comp plan amendment in the Jefferson Manor community and managed to get community support, plus the Chairman of the Lee District Association of Citizens Associations, which is a volunteer organization dedicated to the betterment of the communities in the Lee District.

Annmarie Swope, Hunter Mill, Fairfax County Federation of Citizens Associations

Annmarie Swope was nominated by Tim Thompson, the current President of the Fairfax County Federation of Citizens Associations, to represent the Federation. Annmarie is a professional Brand Marketeer and Campaign Marketing specialist. Annmarie has been a member of the Fairfax County Federation of Citizens Associations' Education Committee since 2012 and had been the Director of Reston Citizens Association (RCA) Board of Directors since 2013, which promotes Reston' vision and planning principles to sustain and enhance it quality of life now and in the future, by serving as a non-partisan, action-oriented organization for all Restonians.

Fran Wallingford, Providence District

Fran Wallingford has served on many Land Use Task Forces including: Planning Horizons, Area Plan Review, Merrifield, MetroWest, Infill Development Study, Residential Design Criteria, Fairfax Hospital Community Committee and the Telecommunications Land Use Task Force. She served on the Fairfax County Federation of Citizens Associations as Vice President and as Land Use Chair and also on the Providence District Council. She is currently Vice President of the Pine Ridge Civic Association and Land Use co-chair and is also the Chair of the Zoning and Planning Committee on the Mantua Citizens' Association Board. For over 12 years Ms. Wallingford served on various Fairfax County Public Schools PTAs as Treasurer and Chair of various committees. She developed and initiated the WT Woodson SCRIP Program which raises funds for school activities. She served as Chair of the Audit Committee, established the Math/Computer Lab, taught GT Computer Classes, served on various Boundary Committees and received a Publication Award from the School Board.

County Staff:

Tony Castrilli, Office of Public Affairs

Tony Castrilli is currently Director of Public Affairs for Fairfax County. He responsible for all county wide external and internal communications, as well as emergency communications, public engagement and customer service. Tony has been with Fairfax for nearly three years. Prior to his position with Fairfax County he was the Director of Communications for the City of Alexandria for over five years, and was the Executive Producer of News Coverage for Channel 9 News in Washington DC from 1999-2008. Tony lives in the Mount Vernon area of Fairfax County.

Tom Conry, GIS and Mapping, Fairfax County

Tom Conry has been the manager of Fairfax County's GIS and Mapping Branch since 1999. Over that period, the Branch has progressively leveraged the dramatic developments in spatial technology and in enterprise systems to deliver GIS data and services to more than 13,000 county staff and to public web users. GIS is a core service in the county and is used in numerous county systems, including CAD/911, tax administration and stormwater planning, urban forestry and land development services. The GIS office hosts 40 different web-GIS applications on the county's web site, providing access to a vast range of county information including historic aerial imagery, property and zoning maps, 3-D data in Virtual Fairfax and agency developed applications such as Trails, Comprehensive Plan Amendments and the Comprehensive Plan Map tool. Tom has over 30 years of experience in information systems, including over 20 years of experience in GIS. Prior to joining Fairfax County he worked in private industry for 17 years, and non-profit groups before then. He has advanced degrees in both Chemistry and Computer Science.

Chase Suddith, Office of the County Executive

Chase Suddith is a resident of Fairfax County and works as an analyst in the Office of the County Executive. Chase has been involved in a number of countywide initiatives including the development and implementation of the Economic Success Strategic Plan; facilitating several public-private partnerships; and providing support for public outreach projects, including his role in planning the Neighborhood and Community Leaders Conference. He graduated from James Madison University with a degree in Public Policy and Administration and is pursuing a Masters of Public Administration at Virginia Tech. Chase has previously interned for the City of Virginia Beach and the Town of Luray.